

“A Lion Called Christian”

A Safari through Kenya, Escorted by John Rendall 23rd October 2010

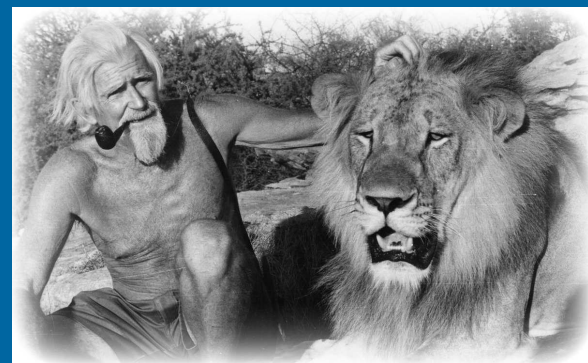

You've seen the world famous YouTube video and read the book. Now join John Rendall, the co-owner of Christian the Lion, on a unique Kenyan safari celebrating the 50th anniversary of the publication of “Born Free”

As a tribute to George & Joy Adamson and in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the publication of ‘Born Free’, John will lead this unique safari through Kenya. As a Trustee of the George Adamson Wildlife Preservation Trust, an associate of the Elsa Conservancy Trust and the original co-owner of Christian there is no better person to showcase the lives of such an extraordinary couple and escort you on safari through Christian's final home.

Departing Kenya on 23 October 2010,
